United Way to Announce its annual David Hegwood Day of Caring

Lawton, Okla – United Way of Southwest Oklahoma will host the 20th Annual David Hegwood Day of Caring on Friday, September 19, 2014, at 08:00 a.m. at the Worley Seminar Center, Building 300 at Great Plains Technology Center, 4500 SW Lee Blvd. Southwestern Medical Center is once again the generous sponsor for the event. The breakfast is free and open to the public.

This well-established and recognized event offers businesses and individuals the opportunity to help local nonprofit human service agencies and schools accomplish much-needed hands-on projects during one day of organized volunteerism. This annual edition of the event will mobilize over 200 volunteers from 15 local business partners to impact the needs of local schools and organizations that provide for the needs of our children, neighbors and friends.

In partnership with the Lawton-Fort Sill Chamber of Commerce's Education Committee, the United Way continues to expanded projects to local schools. There are over 25 projects benefitting local schools and United Way partner agencies. A full list of the projects and locations for the David Hegwood Day of Caring is attached.

All those interested in attending the breakfast should RSVP by Friday, September 12, by calling the United Way office at 580. 355.0218.
