United Way Honors a Long Service Employee

Lawton, Okla – The Board of Directors at United Way of Southwest Oklahoma has honored Judy Dial for her dedicated service to the United Way. Dial received special recognition for 40 outstanding years of service, and was presented with an award to appreciate her loyalty, commitment, and exemplary dedication to the Lawton-Fort Sill community.

United Way of Southwest Oklahoma is proud of the fact that such a dedicated employee remains with the organization for so many years. Our employees are the cornerstone of the organization and without their hard work, and support United Way would not be able to be the organization it is today.

During the last 40 years, Dial has held many responsibilities including fund distribution, and all areas of campaign. Presently, she is Donor Management Director. Dial's dedication to improving people's lives and creating a strong community has always been her main driver, strength and ongoing commitment to work. "I am very honored to be given opportunity to work at United Way," said Dial. "Throughout the years I have met so many wonderful, compassionate and caring people. I love my work because I care for people. It is very rewarding to see a better and stronger community, and improved lives of many people through our work and the programs we are funding. Life has been blessed for me, and I want the same for other people."

Dial has played an important role in making United Way what it is today. She has been part of the many changes and developments, which have taken place within the organization. This takes dedication and flexibility. We would like to thank our wonderful colleague for her exceptional service.
